letter from kyyyler

hi everyone and welcome back to kyyyler world! i had so much fun with you during your last visit and i hope you're ready for more. i love having this channel with you to share something more creative. i have these visions in my head of what kyyyler world looks like and what it could be. i love the idea of you experiencing it with something more tangible like this zine. that being said, vol. 2 of kyyyler world is something i'm really proud of. i pushed myself to create a more fulfilling experience for you.

this issue is titled "bpm" and will give you private access to all the clubs in kyyyler world. club and rave culture is something that always interested me as a kid and something i look forward to every weekend. although these spaces can be dark and dangerous, they offer some of the most thrilling experiences.

i'd love to have that collective experience with you all. in this issue, you will see films that center around clubs and partying. you will get tinnitus after listening to my ideal dj set. if you get thirsty, visit the bar and order one of kyyyler's kocktails.

in kyyyler world; there is a house party on every street, a rave in every warehouse, and the clubs are open 24|7. so get dressed, make a drink, and call the uber because we're going out.

see you there...

thirsty? kyyyler's got you covered. in kyyyler world, all drinks are free! but here is a drink you can make at home.

let's call it "go go juice." this drink is the perfect pick-me-up before, during, or after any party. feel like the hottest girl at the club while sipping (or chugging) the icy watermelon flavors. let the redbull charge you all the way till the afters. order another 'cause no girl should be empty handed. drink responsibly obvi!

ingredients:

- midori - 2 oz.
- sugarfree redbull
- cherries

instructions:

- add ice to a chilled glass
- add your midori
- fill the rest of your glass with redbull and stir
- garnish with a cute cherry and enjoy!

wow what a night... thank you so much for visiting kyyyler world. i hope you got to experience something new and had fun along the way. i'm glad we could all go to the club and party together.

i can't say how much i enjoy making this zine. i love every part of it. from creating visuals to making teaser videos. sometimes, i have to restrain myself from posting about kyyyler world because of how excited i get. channeling all my interests and ideas here is honestly therapeutic. it feels so good to know that people enjoy my more creative side. in real life, it's kind of hard to find people to have the same appreciation. so, i'm grateful for you all that like kyyyler world as much as i do.

as always thank you to everyone who helped me make vol. 2 a reality. i'm blessed to have friends who take photos, set up shoots, and listen to my ideas. i love them all so much.

i'm really excited for the future of kyyyler world. i'm already thinking of what vol.3 will look like and how i can make it even better. so stay tuned because it's about to get bloody.
