kyyyler world vol. 3

inferno

letter from kyyyler

hi everyone and welcome back to kyyyler world! i've had such an amazing time with you everytime you visit. so, we've been to space and we've been to the club. now, let's take a little trip to the underworld of kyyyler world.

this issue titled 'inferno' focuses on all things hellish and evil. for inspiration, i've looked to the greatest horror films ever made. one of the first horror films i watched was 'the ring' and something shifted. since that day, blood and terror have become some of my favorite things. the ability for a film, to pull emotions out someone, especially fear, is something truly special.

the concept of hell has also been very interesting. across different cultures and religions, we are told to be fearful of going to hell especially if you are queer like me. so why not embrace it?

that being said, the hell that burns under kyyyler world is the place to be. in this issue, you will see all the evil films that play in my inferno and you'll hear the sinful music that plays non-stop. so much waits for you at the scorching core of kyyyler world. thank you again for coming and i'll see you down there.

kyyyler's kocktails

is it getting hot in here? kyyyler's got the perfect drink for you.

let's call it the "lake of fire." this drink is for all the hot girls who like hot drinks. this drink is perfect for when you are relaxing on the burning pools of fire in hell or for a halloween party. whiskey is nastyyy so fireball is the only way to go. have fun and drink responsibly.

ingredients:

- fireball whiskey - 2 oz.
- lemonade
- grenadine
- lime

instructions:

- add ice to a chilled glass
- add your fireball
- fill the rest of your glass with lemonade and a splash of grenadine
- garnish with a lime slice and enjoy!

was it fun? thank you so much for reading this issue of kyyyler world! this issue definitely pushed my boundaries as far as taking photos and editing. i'm glad it turned out exactly how i wanted it to.

i also feel like it came naturally to me since horror is more up my alley in a visual sense. i think i definitely have an eye for what is scary and what isn't. i would honestly love to direct, write, or act in a horror movie at some point. it's kind of my dream.

i hope more people embrace horror as a genre and see it's validity. as humans, i think it's natural to experience the dark sides of the world and life. it's kind of the only way move past them and see all the good that exists.

once again, thank you to all my friends who helped me make this issue. from taking photos to trying my kocktails, they really have a hand in every part. i'm grateful for their honest feedback, otherwise my art would exist in a vacuum.

i'm really excited for my next issue and i hope to see you soon!
